Leading Together: Help I'm new to church leadership

This evening is specifically designed for those new to church leadership as secretary, treasurer, elder or deacon. Being church leaders brings great opportunities, but also significant challenges. Whilst encouraging a vision for mission and church growth there are also concerns for doing things in good order and following good practice. During the evening we shall look at some of the practical aspects of church leadership with a time of questions and answers set within the context of 'seeking first the Kingdom.'
